

ISTANBUL GOLD EXCHANGE

PRECIOUS METALS LENDING MARKET

PRINCIPLES OF MEMBERSHIP

Below is the stages should be followed for being a member of Precious Metals Lending Market :

- 1- Those associations (banks, private financial associations, authorized subsidiaries, precious metals brokerage houses, individuals or associations reside abroad) which are the members of IGE should submit an application form to the Presidency of IGE indicating they want to become a member of the lending market.
- 2- Representatives who will represent the member should obtain an authorization certificate after the submission of an identification copy, diploma copy and the document that he/she is not previously convicted.
- 3- The annual membership fee which is current at application date should be paid; the annual membership fee is determined by general committee. (At present no annual fee is paid for market membership as decided by general assembly till opposite decided).
- 4- Membership obligation should be signed.
- 5- The decision should be given by the general assembly of Istanbul Gold Exchange for membership to the precious metals lending market upon application of member.

Remark: Those document which will be submitted to the exchange should be signed by those who are authorized to present the association.